The Pastor's Two Bits...

Welcome to Fairfield Glade First Baptist Church! Thank you for choosing to worship with us today! I hope you have a great experience with God as you offer your prayers and praise.

I am writing this article early in the week before you read it because I am planning later in the week to attend the funeral of the son of some good friends. Their son died on "Good Friday". He was a good young man - a Christian young man. Some of you know the story. But I want to share some of what the Dad wrote a couple of of days after his son's death:

> One thing for sure, I have a better understanding of what our Heavenly Father experienced with the loss of His son. I know it isn't exactly the same, but I imagine the pain is. So what next? Our resurrection hope give us a reason to live with urgency. Jesus' sacrifice cost too much to waste. Too many people haven't had a chance to hear the good news. So many people live in the weight of their sin, but don't know the price has already been paid. I have a new sense of urgency. I resolve to be ever more committed to the cause of Christ.

Today's message is about another man whose daughter died. In that case, Jesus raised her from death and gave her back to her parents. Jesus is a life giver. We can't always understand how He chooses that some lives are long and some are short. But as my friend wrote, it should fill us with a sense of urgency to share the Gospel all the more. So many people right here in the Glade are inching ever closer to eternity without Christ. Do you sense the urgency to tell them about a critical choice they need to make regarding their eternity? I hope so. May your knowledge of Jesus Christ give you an urgency to share the Gospel of salvation with others!

Logan McCourtney, Scottsbluff, Nebraska

Logan McCourtney serves as a co-vocational church planter in the panhandle of western Nebraska. This area is known for its high rate of abuse of prescription drugs and alcohol. There is also a high rate of teen pregnancy. Logan states that the brokenness emanates from not having an education. Sin issues in this area are disturbing - drug addiction, alcoholism, trafficking, homelessness and broken families can be linked to money or lack thereof. His job at the community college allows him to be a light on campus to his coworkers and students. Please pray for Logan as he ministers in this difficult area.
