The Pastor's Two Bits...

Welcome to Fairfield Glade First Baptist Church! Thank you for choosing to worship with us today! I hope you have a great experience with God as you offer your prayers and praise.

What's so miraculous about Miracle Whip? The real miracle would be if you could still buy it for $0.99 a jar! Actually, I like Miracle Whip; I usually prefer it over real mayonnaise (but that's beside the point.) The fact is that we sometimes think too small when we think about miracles -- real miracles. When I was about ten years old, a friend of mine was diagnosed with a large tumor in his abdomen. As a kid, I didn't know all the details, but I do know that everyone in our church and many other churches were praying for him. The day before his scheduled surgery, the doctors did some last-minute scans to verify how they wanted to operate. ---But the tumor was gone! Completely! 100% vanished! That was one of the first times in my life that I saw so many people giving so much praise to God! He got all the glory.

God still works miracles. As Southern Baptists, we don't believe that the spiritual gift of "healing" is an active gift as it was in the first generation of apostles. It seems that God gave it to some of those first apostles as a sign of continuity of the power of Jesus. Many people in that first generation saw His miracles and as evidence of His resurrection and the advent of the Holy Spirit, God gave those apostles a gift of miraculous healings. It would seem that once the church was firmly established, God did not want the emphasis to be on physical miracles. He wanted it to be on faith. But... He still works miracles... in His way, in His time, in His sovereignty. He might use you or I in the process or He might just do it with no other show or help. But when He does, He expects to receive the credit. He does miracles so that we might believe all the more in Him.

Missions Moments

Craig & Maggie Coppenbarger ~ Knob Noster, MO

Home to Whiteman Air Force Base, because of the Coppenbarger military experience, they felt this would be a good fit to launch Valor Church. They also operate a coffee shop to provide the church with a presence in the heart of the community and opportunities to engage people with the gospel. Pray for the residency program which trains people for the future mission's work.
