The Pastor's Two Bits...

Welcome to Fairfield Glade First Baptist Church! Thank you for choosing to worship with us today! I hope you have a great experience with God as you offer your prayers and praise.

Salvation happens in a moment of time; but is also a lifelong process. The journey toward spiritual maturity can be an exciting adventure as you discover how God will be involved in your life if only you will let Him. Allowing Him to work in your life is not always easy. It takes discipline. And mastering spiritual disciplines is an important key to living a Christian lifestyle.

Spiritual disciplines are ways to connect with God consistently and more closely. Prayer, Bible study, quiet time with Him, journaling, worshiping, fasting, tithing, evangelism... there are a host of lifestyle changes that eventually should find their way into your life. They are ways in which you express your loyalty and commitment to Him. They are ways by which you learn how to serve Him and others through Him. One scholar summarized it this way: Spiritual disciplines are the "freedom to grow in Godliness - to naturally express Christ's character through your own personality - [and are] in large part dependent on ... deliberate cultivation."*

It is important to work on your salvation - to exercise it and strengthen it. How can you draw closer to God this week? How can you share Him with others?

- Pastor Doug

July 11
Dena McAnally, Thailand

The Isaan people of northeast Thailand listen to the Gospel, but often require a lot of explanation and visible evidence to convicted to follow Christ. The area where the Isaan live is a rice-growing country dotted with small villages. Most people follow the Buddhist religion and they constantly live seeking merit to earn a better reincarnation after death. The people are friendly, love to laugh and play, but they are empty of hope. Dena McAnally, our missionary to the Isaan people, ask for prayer "for divinely prepared opportunities to share the Gospel as many of them have never heard the name of Jesus".
