The Pastor's Two Bits...

Welcome to Fairfield Glade First Baptist Church! Thank you for choosing to worship with us today! I hope you have a great experience with God as you offer your prayers and praise.

While pastoring in Missouri, I served on a mission crew called Missourians on Mission. Their forté was to build churches. Well... to help build buildings that were used by churches to worship in and minister from. It's an important distinction. A church is not its buildings; it is the people.

In Matthew 16, Jesus asked His disciples, “Whom do men say that I, the Son of man am?” After a couple of responses, He asked another question, “But whom do you say that I am?” That's when Peter spoke up... “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” To which Jesus replied in part, “...upon this rock, I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it...” The church is not its buildings; it is people who are bonded together in common belief and commitment to Jesus Christ.

Fairfield Glade First Baptist Church is a good church with a desire to worship God well, to represent Jesus outside the walls of the church building, and to see others come to salvation in Him. The building can't do those things. The 'corporation' of the church can't do those things. When Jesus visualized the church during that conversation with Peter, He visualized faithful people working in harmony with one another to build up and encourage one another to the degree that none of Satan's tricks could destroy it. A church that is built on the truth and love of Jesus - people who are bonded together in their belief and commitment to Jesus - is a successful and effective church. Let's be that church.

Mission Moment

Ben & Heather Horton ~ Sheridan, Wyoming

While on a mission trip to Wyoming, in 2007, the Hortons felt God calling them to plant a church there. In 2020 they moved and in 4 months they went from hosting a home Bible study to having a classroom-size gathering. Six months later, they outgrew that space and The Homeplace Cowboy Church began meeting in the conference room of a hotel. The church hosts a variety of community outreaches. Pray many more would come to faith in Christ.
