The Pastor's Two Bits...

Welcome to Fairfield Glade First Baptist Church! Thank you for choosing to worship with us today! I hope you have a great experience with God as you offer your prayers and praise.

I have been a Christian for over 48 years. But I haven't always been as enthused about it as I should have been. There have been lots of times when I've gone my own way instead of God's. I've done things He doesn't want me to do; and I've not done things He wants me to do. Sometimes, I've just been apathetic about it. I would like to be always on a spiritual high with God. I would like always to be pleasing to Him and doing His Will in my life. But it doesn't work out that way. (Have you notice how many times I've written "I" so far?)

God desires to make you into something special. If you give your life fully to Him, He will mold you into a beautiful vessel, with a special purpose in His Kingdom. Sometimes "I" try too hard. "I" try to be what "I" think He wants me to be. But "I" need to learn to simply let God have me.

God has a plan for your life (even if you've already lived most of it.) I wish you could look back on your life and not see any mistakes or missed opportunities. I wish you could look at your years as a Christian and not see any times that you defied or disappointed God. But I doubt that any of us can do that. You can't erase the past. But you still have some say about the future. God desires to make you into something special.

Jeremiah once watched a potter make a pot...

Mission Moment

Steve and Toni Chambers: New York City

Steve and Toni Chambers were sent by their small Alabama church to plant Grace City Church in New York City to reach those who need Christ. The Chambers began by meeting in small groups as many in their neighborhood were skeptical of Christianity. Meeting this way allowed Steve and Toni to build deeper relationships and address specific questions about faith. They gather for worship every other week and in the weeks between they gather outside the church walls to invite new people and building relationships that lead to conversations about the gospel. Pray that the Lord will draw more people to Himself through the efforts of the Chambers.
