The Pastor's Two Bits...

Welcome to Fairfield Glade First Baptist Church! Thank you for choosing to worship with us today! I hope you have a great experience with God as you offer your prayers and praise.

Have you ever noticed that people are usually pretty self-centered? The "What's-in-it-for-me?" syndrome is alive and well. --I want this. --It's my right. I deserve it... Most people want to grab life by the horns and claim as much as they can for themselves. Although they talk about helping others who are less fortunate, they make sure that they make their own fortunes first. Looking out for #1 is the main priority.

Ok. Sure.
There's nothing wrong with taking care of yourself.
Really.
There's not.

Have you ever thought about how self-centered salvation is? You can't be saved for anyone but yourself. When you receive the saving grace of Jesus, you are doing so for you - Numero Uno. Nobody else benefits. Talk about grabbing life by the horns - you just grabbed eternal life! It's puzzling why so many self-centered people don't do it. After all, it's the ultimate in self-centeredness.

Well... kinda... but not really.

Salvation can't be claimed selfishly or pridefully or arrogantly. Just the opposite, in fact. It can only be received humbly and gratefully. It's not a 'right'. It isn't anything you 'deserve'. It's a gift. God wants you to have it. It's free for the taking. And it is just for you. It's just that, somehow, it makes the "I" much less important.

Mission Moment

Elena and Guy Key, Brazil

In 1984 Elena and Guy Key were appointed as missionaries to Brazil. Elena's family have quite a history in Brazil. In 1921, her Mom and Dad, J.J. and Grace Cowser, established a Baptist publishing house and were the first to print Bibles in Brazil. In 1952, the Cowserts' son, George pastored ten churches throughout Brazil, while his wife, Hilda, directed the Brazilian Woman's Missionary Union. Since 1984 Elena and Guy, have worked with Brazilian Baptist compatriots for wide-scale church planting. Keep them in our prayers this week for this family to continue for generations to share the Gospel in Brazil.
