

The Pastor's Two Bits...

Welcome to Fairfield Glade First Baptist Church! Thank you for choosing to worship with us today! I hope you have a great experience with God as you offer your prayers and praise.

In October, I plan to preach a couple of sermons about this year's election. But today's message is about judgment - God's judgment. So I thought I would write today about one of the institutions that is at stake in this election - the Supreme Court.

As of July 7, our current President and Senate have confirmed 194 federal judges, including 2 Supreme Court justices, all of whom are still active on the bench. That compares to 312 currently active judges and 2 SC justices during the eight years of the previous administration. It is likely that the President of the next four years will replace at least two more Supreme Court justices and dozens of other federal judges. We are already beginning to see a difference in decisions that are being handed down from our highest courts. Though still far from repelling the amoral and immoral digression of the past several decades, there are glimmers of hope. The left-most fringes of our society can no longer count on the rubber-stamping of their agenda as they have in the past. The election we face today will determine whether America will continue its slide away from God or reverse at least some of it.

A popular slogan is "Elections Have Consequences". That's very true. Unfortunately, in America today we are beyond the luxury of voting for persons. It matters not what person's name is on the ballot. It matters not whether you like him or her as a person. What matters are the philosophies and ideals those persons represent. Some today represent the moral and political destruction of America as we know it. Some represent a path that is generally more traditional and much more in line with Biblical values. Even if it means voting for a person you don't like, I encourage you to vote for a philosophical system of government that will preserve the America that has always recognized the endowment and blessing of our Creator.

Oh, by the way... Who's Your ONE? (If that question doesn't make any sense to you, read September's newsletter.)

September 13

Dom Martin, Chicago

Dom Martin, a Southern Baptist church planter, leads Freedom Home Church in Albany Park, the most ethnically diverse neighborhood in Chicago. He also works as the dean of students at a local high school. A church member asked Dom to pray for her neighborhood which had become a sanctuary for prostitutes and drug dealers making it very unsafe. Dom and other church members prayer-walked down her street. The next Sunday Dom found that the people causing the problems were gone and the neighbors helped clean up the streets. Please pray that the Lord would lead Dom and his church members in sharing the Gospel with neighbors in Albany Park, Chicago.
