The Pastor's Two Bits...

Welcome to Fairfield Glade First Baptist Church! Thank you for choosing to worship with us today! I hope you have a great experience with God as you offer your prayers and praise.

*****

What now? The revival services are over. We settle back into our normal routines. We do church. Lots of activities and plans and trips. Busyness. It's about time to rake leaves. Winterize boats and RVs. Get ready for the holidays. The cycle of life continues. One season folds into the next. Year after year. What now?

I hope the revival services meant more than that to you. I hope you have a different perspective, a new purpose. I hope you have renewed your commitment to Jesus in terms of personal resolve to live a more devoted life of Bible study and prayer, of serving and supporting the church, of telling your story of faith to others, and telling them about Him. Sometimes, God steps into our lives for the purpose of changing the 'old routine'; for interrupting the 'cycle'; for setting a new direction. I hope that's what the revival services have done for us.

Now it's time to put it to use. Let's be the church that people in our community talk about (in a good way 😊.) Let's be the church that is faithful to the teachings of Scripture. Let's be the church that unchurched people are drawn to and welcomed to. Let's be the church that represents Jesus to our community. Let's be the church that represents the Bible's "one another" verses amongst ourselves and to our neighbors.

Let's be the church.

Missions Moments

Rachel & Anna ~ Asian Pacific Rim People

They are International Board Missionaries. Rachel is a nurse practitioner. Anna is a public health specialist. They find open doors to deliver the gospel through community health outreach. They and their team have built a relationship with the government, allowing them to enter school. The team routinely reaches 1,800 families. Pray God would empower them to reach more families and that they would be receptive to the truth of who they are in Christ.
