The Pastor's Two Bits…..

Welcome to Fairfield Glade First Baptist Church! Thank you for choosing to worship with us today! I hope you have a great experience with God as you offer your prayers and praise.

Let Your Light Shine!

Today you will find THANK YOU cards in the backs of the sanctuary chairs. The purpose is so that you can write a quick note to someone that you are grateful to. Maybe someone helped you in a special way this year; maybe it's just someone being a friend. Whatever the reason, give them a card. Let's show our gratitude to God and to one another this Thanksgiving season.

I used to watch the news a lot. I wanted to stay informed about current events locally and globally. But it's hard today to find a real "newscast". Many of the programs are opinions, discussions, and arguments. All I want is a news broadcast with snippets of what's going on in the world -brief stories that keep me up-to-date. Opinions and arguments are useless... and oftentimes disrespectful. I get so turned off by them that I turn them off.

Respect.

As we celebrate Thanksgiving, "respect" is a word we should keep in mind. It is difficult to be grateful to someone you don't respect or who doesn't respect you. Disrespect builds barriers that are hard to break down. Once we get used to disrespecting someone, it makes it easier to disrespect another... and another... It also makes it easier to disrespect God.

...Barriers.

Be sure to thank God this week. He is a willing and effective barrier- breaker!

Dean Ross, Metairie, Louisiana

Dean Ross is the Associate Pastor at Boulevard Baptist Church in Metairie, Louisiana, the church were he grew up. Dan says "I love serving Jesus in the city of my birth". Metairie is a suburb of New Orleans, which has a mixture of cultural Catholicism as spiritual darkness. Please pray for Dean and his congregation as they make plans for church planting and other endeavors to reach the people of New Orleans and outlying suburbs.
